

Maggie Gayford, Associate

Maggie Gayford is a puppeteer, actor, and stage manager based in New York City. She most recently performed in Shake on the Lake's productions of Lear's Nightmare and As You Like It and has been a developmental puppeteer on Concrete Temple Theatre's Packrat since 2018. Other credits include Evolve Puppets' Home, the Long Island Children's Museum, and workshop productions at Lincoln Center Education and Puppet Showplace Theatre, as well as stage managing productions with SproutWorks and The Dead End Kids.

She is currently working on a puppetry piece with the band Early Gray that will be workshopped at Dixon Place's Puppet Blok 2019. When not onstage, she can be found working front of house and production at Lincoln Center Education BFA Acting UNCSA 2018.